

About CHANGE I NETWORK

Change I Network (CIN) is a NGO with a mission to bring positive change in the lives of people.

Change I Network started its operations about two years back, with its headquarters in New Delhi. CIN's members are running four of its flagship programmes (4 Ps) through its branches in different parts of the country.

Genesis

'We can't help everyone, but everyone can help someone' Inspired by this very quote a group of professionals came together to form Change I Network. Thus, it is being run by working professionals who are committed to dedicate their time, resources and skills in reaching out to serve the society.

This organization strives to bring about a positive change in the society by helping people.

The concept of CIN originated from the anti-corruption and the socio-political movement happening across the globe which has seen immense youth participation.

Vision and Mission

Enable the civil society across the world to engage proactively in the change process through the philosophy of civic driven change and bring sustainable change in the lives of under privileged children, youth, women and elderly.

Programs

To bring about the change so envisioned by CIN it has initiated many programs on grassroot levels.

1. Paatshaala (Learning Today Leading Tomorrow)
2. Paryavaran (My Locality I Care)
3. Perfect Health
4. Pahal, (An initiative)

Paatshaala - Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow

This program attempts to bring the Right to Education a step closer to the children of economically weaker section. The program aims at changing the perspective of parents by making them understand the importance of education and also facilitate them with necessary instruments to make their kids go the extra mile. This program is a stepping stone for generating interests of children towards formal schooling.

In the Paatshaala program more than 50 children have been admitted to formal schools, furthermore they are also tutored by the members so to cope up with the lost time and also to gain a better edge. The Team plans to setup various Study Center's and cater approx. 300 children. Team also plans to provide Scholarship benefits to deserving candidates.

Paryavaran - My Locality, I Care

This program has been initiated to inculcate a sense of responsibility as well as civic sense among the residents. As part of this initiative almost every weekend CIN members along with volunteers visit various parks and other public places to conduct a cleanliness drive. Beside cleaning parks, Members converse with the morning walkers and children to make them aware and take notes/suggestion as to how the area can be improved. The suggestions are compiled, sent and followed up with the proper authorities.
